MARAVEDIS, AÑO DE MIL SE-
TECIENTOS NOVENTA.

This image shows a blank, aged, cream-colored page, likely an endpaper or flyleaf from an old book. The paper has a slightly textured appearance with some minor creases and discoloration, characteristic of old paper. Faint, illegible markings or ghosting of text from the reverse side are visible, particularly in the upper and lower portions of the page. There are also some very faint, dark smudges or ink marks scattered across the surface.
