should be great difficulty in obtaining sufficient information to know whether these were ever intended as the record of the state parishes. This will be an excellent topic to be submitted to the chair in order that these records may be recovered. It is the opinion of the old men that they are in fact the records of the former parishes of which the boundaries are now unknown. The boundaries of the new parishes are very difficult to determine and it is therefore very difficult to know what is the record of these new parishes. The
