

SELLO QVARTO, DIEZ MARA-
VEDIS, AÑO DE MIL Y SEISCIENTOS
Y CINQUENTA Y CINCO.

Handwritten notes in the left margin, including the name 'Lymusa m' and other illegible scribbles.

Main body of handwritten text, likely a legal or administrative document, written in a cursive script. It begins with 'Nada deca de carauaen' and continues with several lines of text, including names like 'Don Juan de...' and 'Don...'.

Handwritten note on the right side of the page, possibly a signature or reference.

