

In the morning of the 1st of June I left the city of Caracaca for the purpose of going to the mountains of the Sierra de Parí. I was accompanied by a few men and a pack of mules. The day was very hot and the wind was very strong. We went through a very beautiful country. The mountains were very high and the vegetation was very thick. We went for several days and at last we reached the city of Parí.

Caracaca y Parí 1 de Junio 1842

Juan Manuel
 de los Rios

