

1830

1830

1830

Faded handwritten text, likely a letter or official document, written in Spanish. The text is mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side of the page.

Handwritten signatures and names at the bottom of the page, including what appears to be a name starting with 'Juan' and another starting with 'Antonio'.