

Handwritten text in a dense, cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is written in a dark ink on aged paper and covers most of the page. It appears to be a formal record or a set of instructions, with some words and phrases that are difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and fading. There are some larger, more prominent words or phrases that might be titles or key terms, but they are not clearly legible.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a concluding statement. It includes several lines of cursive script, some of which are crossed out or written over. There are some distinct words or phrases that are more legible than the rest, such as "fueron" and "señalada". The text is written in a similar cursive style to the main body of the document.
