

The first part of the manuscript contains a list of names and dates, written in a cursive hand. The text is somewhat faded and difficult to read in many places. It appears to be a record of some kind, possibly a ledger or a list of transactions.
 The entries are separated by horizontal lines, and some are written in a larger, bolder hand than others. The overall style is characteristic of 17th or 18th century handwriting.

The second part of the manuscript continues the list of names and dates. The handwriting is consistent with the first part, though there are some variations in the style of the letters. The text is arranged in a similar format, with entries separated by lines. There are some corrections and additions visible in this section. The overall appearance is that of a well-kept record book.
