

The first part of the manuscript contains a list of names and titles of various persons and places including the names of the lords and gentlemen of the county of Devon and the names of the parishes and towns of the same county as they were in the year 1600. The names are written in a very large and bold hand, and are arranged in columns. The first column contains the names of the lords and gentlemen, the second column contains the
towns, and the third column
parishes and towns as they were in the year 1600.
