

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is written in brown ink on aged, yellowed paper. It begins with a large, stylized initial 'M' in red ink. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be in a different script or dialect than others, possibly indicating a mix of languages or a specific regional dialect. The handwriting is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and fading.

Marginal notes in a smaller, more legible script, possibly a later hand or a different dialect. The notes appear to be a list or a set of instructions, with some words underlined or written in a different color. The text is written in brown ink on the left side of the page.

*Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the main body of the document. The text is written in brown ink on aged, yellowed paper. It begins with a large, stylized initial 'M' in red ink. The text is arranged in several lines, with some words appearing to be in a different script or dialect than others, possibly indicating a mix of languages or a specific regional dialect.
