SEISCIENTOS Y CINCUENTA Y
SEIS.

[The main body of the document consists of dense, handwritten text in a cursive script, likely from the 16th or 17th century. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper with some staining and wear. It appears to be a legal or administrative document, possibly a contract or a set of regulations. The handwriting is somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the condition of the paper.]

[Marginal notes on the left side of the page, written in the same cursive script as the main text. These notes appear to be supplementary information or commentary related to the main document.]
