SELLO VARTHEZ MARA-
VEDIS, ANODE MIL Y TRESCIENTOS
Y SESENTA Y CINCO

[The following text is written in a highly cursive, handwritten script, likely a form of Castilian or Spanish from the 16th century. It is largely illegible due to the extreme cursive style and significant fading. The text appears to be a legal or administrative document, possibly a notary record or a royal decree, given the context of the seal and the date. It contains numerous names and phrases, but they cannot be accurately transcribed. The text is organized into several paragraphs, with some lines starting with capital letters. The document is heavily aged and stained, with significant portions of the ink faded and the parchment discolored.]
