

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is dense and covers most of the page. It appears to be a list or a set of instructions, with several lines starting with "Tenemos" (We have) and "ordenamos" (We order). The script is highly stylized and characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly stained paper. There are some large, decorative initials or flourishes interspersed throughout the text.
