

Handwritten text at the top of the page, including a large circular scribble or signature.

Main body of handwritten text, written in a cursive script, with several large irregular holes and tears in the paper.

Vertical handwritten notes or marginalia on the left side of the page.

