

Handwritten notes in the left margin, including the word "Luzerna" and other illegible characters.

Main body of handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or legal record. The text is densely packed and spans most of the page's width.

