

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly stained paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are several large, decorative initial letters at the beginning of lines, such as 'D' and 'E'. The text appears to be a formal communication, possibly a decree or a letter of appointment, given the use of 'mandat' and 'commissaire'. The handwriting is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The document is signed at the bottom with a large, stylized signature and a date 'le 20 de Mars 1510'.
