

Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly a list or account. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. It consists of approximately 20 lines of text, with some lines starting with a large initial letter. The script is dense and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and script. There are some marginalia on the left side, including the letters 'n', 'm', 'm', 'v', and 'v'. The text appears to be a list of items or a record of transactions, with some words that might be recognizable as 'pabbe' (abbot) and 'prieur' (prior). The text is written in a cursive style with many ligatures and some decorative flourishes.
