

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or letter. The text is dense and spans most of the page. It appears to be a formal communication, possibly a petition or a report, given the context of the signature below. The ink is dark, and the paper shows signs of age and wear.

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "Beltran" or "Gerresalton", written in a stylized cursive script. The signature is written in dark ink and is positioned to the right of the seal.

Additional handwritten text at the bottom of the page, which is less legible than the main body of text. It appears to be a continuation of the document or a separate note. The handwriting is consistent with the rest of the page.
