

THE UNIVERSITY OF CHICAGO
LIBRARY

The main body of the page contains several lines of handwritten text in cursive script. The text is extremely faint and difficult to decipher, appearing to be bleed-through from the reverse side of the paper. Some words like 'University' and 'Chicago' are barely visible.

At the bottom of the page, there is a signature and a date. The signature is written in a large, flowing cursive hand and appears to read 'John Jay'. To the right of the signature, the date '1840' is written. There is also a small circular stamp or mark above the signature.
