

(1)

Handwritten text, likely bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The text is mirrored and difficult to decipher but appears to contain several lines of a letter or document.

Handwritten signature or name, possibly "John Smith" or similar, written in a cursive style.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a date or a reference number, including the number "11".

