

Handwritten text in a cursive script, possibly a legal document or record. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowish paper and is organized into approximately 20 horizontal lines. The script is dense and characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The document appears to be a record of land transactions, as evidenced by the phrase "memoria" and the use of terms like "terminos" (boundaries) and "parceles" (plots). There are several large, decorative initial letters, notably the first letter of the first line, which is a large, ornate 'P'. The text is written in a consistent, slanted cursive hand.
