

Reason of the danger
which is to be feared
in the present
state of the world
and the danger
of the present
state of the world
and the danger
of the present
state of the world

Wise men
of the present
state of the world
and the danger
state of the world

It is the duty
of every man
to be virtuous
and to be useful to his country

And the duty
of every man
useful to his
country
