

[Faint, illegible text in the left margin, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side]

In nomine domini Amen
 Nos Henricus Rex Anglorum et Francie et Normannie et Aquitanie et Britannie et Comes Andegavorum et dux Normannie et Aquitanie et Bracciane et Gasconie salutem in domino sempiternam et apostolicam benedictionem In quibusdam litteris apostolicis sedis tue auctoritate committimus et mandamus tibi et successoribus tuis in premissis et in aliis que ad premissa pertinent et ad executionem premissorum
 et ad satisfactionem premissorum
 et ad conservacionem premissorum
 et ad observacionem premissorum
 et ad executionem premissorum
 et ad satisfactionem premissorum
 et ad conservacionem premissorum
 et ad observacionem premissorum
 et ad executionem premissorum
 et ad satisfactionem premissorum
 et ad conservacionem premissorum
 et ad observacionem premissorum

Et licet dicti littere non continent expressam mentionem premissorum
 et ad executionem premissorum
 et ad satisfactionem premissorum
 et ad conservacionem premissorum
 et ad observacionem premissorum

In the name of the Lord
 Amen
 We Henry King of England
 and France and Normandy
 and Aquitaine and Britain
 and Count of Anjou and
 Duke of Normandy and Aquitaine and Bracciane
 and Gascony
 greet you in the Lord forever and apostolic
 blessing

In the name of the Lord Amen
 We Henry King of England
 and France and Normandy
 and Aquitaine and Britain
 and Count of Anjou and
 Duke of Normandy and
 Aquitaine and Bracciane
 and Gascony
 greet you in the Lord
 forever and apostolic
 blessing
 In certain letters
 apostolic of your holiness authority
 we commit and
 command you and your successors in
 the premises and
 in other things pertaining to the
 execution of the
 premises and to the
 satisfaction of the
 premises and to the
 conservation of the
 premises and to the
 observation of the
 premises and to the
 execution of the
 premises and to the
 satisfaction of the
 premises and to the
 conservation of the
 premises and to the
 observation of the premises

