

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. It consists of several lines of text, with some lines starting with large, decorative initial letters. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the fading of the ink. The text appears to be a formal document, possibly a contract or a record of a transaction, given the use of terms like 'merces' and 'tithe'.
