

The first part of the book is a history of the reign of King Henry the First, who reigned from the year 1113 to 1135. In this reign the kingdom of England was united to the kingdom of Normandy, and the English language was introduced into Normandy.
 The second part of the book is a history of the reign of King Stephen, who reigned from the year 1135 to 1154. In this reign the kingdom of England was divided into two parts, the one being held by King Stephen and the other by King Matilda.
 The third part of the book is a history of the reign of King Matilda, who reigned from the year 1141 to 1141. In this reign
 the kingdom of England was united to the kingdom of Normandy, and the English
 language was introduced into Normandy.
 The fourth part of the book is a history of the reign of King Henry the Second, who reigned from the year 1154 to 1189. In this reign the kingdom of England was united to the kingdom of France, and the English language was introduced into France.

The fifth part of the book is a history of the reign of King Richard the First, who reigned from the year 1189 to 1199. In
 this reign the kingdom of England was
 united to the kingdom of France, and the English language was introduced into France. The sixth part of the book is a history of the reign of King John, who reigned from the year 1199 to 1216. In
 this reign the kingdom of England was
 united to the kingdom of France, and the English language was introduced into France.

The seventh part of the book is a history of the reign of King Henry the Third, who reigned from the year 1216 to 1272. In
 this reign the kingdom of England was
 united to the kingdom of France, and the English language was introduced into France.

