

Diec martialis

The page contains dense handwritten text in a cursive script, likely Latin or Spanish. The text is written across approximately 25 lines, with some lines appearing very faint or partially obscured by ink bleed-through from the reverse side of the page. The handwriting is characteristic of the late 16th or early 17th century.

Notable words and phrases include:

- "Martialis" at the top, corresponding to the page header.
- Phrases such as "deus in excelsis deus", "in nomine domini", and "Amen" are visible, suggesting a liturgical or prayerful context.
- Words like "sanctus", "patris", and "spiritus" are also present.
