

SELLO QUINTO, DIEZ MARAVEDIS, EN ORO DE MIL Y SEISCIENTOS Y OCHO VENTOS Y CINCO.

Handwritten text in Spanish, likely a royal decree or legal document. The text is written in a cursive script and includes phrases such as 'que los señores de este', 'don Juan de...', 'don Sebastian de...', and 'Parague'. The document appears to be a formal record or a set of instructions.

