

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page. There are several large, decorative initial letters at the beginning of lines, including a prominent 'L' at the top left and 'S' further down. The text appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a legal or administrative record. The handwriting is somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the fading of the ink in some places. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-used manuscript.

Handwritten notes or marginalia on the left side of the page, including the word "quarta" and other illegible characters.
