

SELLO QVARTO, DIEZ MARA
VEDIS, ANO DEN MIL Y SEISCIENT
TOS Y SESENTA Y SEIS.

Handwritten text in a highly decorative cursive script, likely a list of names or titles. The text is written in dark ink on aged, slightly stained paper. The names are arranged in several lines, with some appearing to be names of nobles or officials. The script is very fluid and interconnected, characteristic of the late 16th or early 17th century.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, possibly a signature or a concluding statement. It appears to be a name followed by a title or a location, written in the same decorative cursive script as the rest of the page.
