

SELLO QVARTO, DIEZ MARAVE
DIS, AÑO DE MIL SEISCIENTOS
OCHENTA.

[The main body of the document is written in a highly decorative, cursive script. The text is largely illegible due to the extreme slant and flourish of the handwriting. A large, stylized 'X' is written on the left side of the page, overlapping the main text. The document appears to be a legal or official record, given the header and the formal nature of the script.]
