

The first part of the paper is devoted to a general consideration of the subject, and to a statement of the objects of the present inquiry. It is then divided into three parts, the first of which is devoted to a description of the various species of the genus and to a statement of their geographical distribution.
 The second part is devoted to a description of the habits and characters of the various species, and to a statement of their uses. The third part is devoted to a description of the various species of the genus, and to a statement of their geographical distribution.
