

Stux

Lab

General John Ross has been appointed to the command of the expedition to the Arctic region. He will be accompanied by a large party of men and dogs. The expedition is expected to start in the month of August. It is hoped that they will be able to reach the North Pole before the onset of winter.

[Faint handwritten notes, possibly bleed-through from the reverse side.]

1870

