

The first part of the book is devoted to a description of the various species of plants which are found in the country. The author has been very particular in his descriptions, and has given many interesting details of their habits and uses. The second part of the book is a history of the country, and contains a great deal of valuable information respecting its ancient and modern state. The author has been very diligent in his researches, and has collected a vast number of facts and observations which are here presented in a clear and concise manner. The third part of the book is a description of the various parts of the country, and contains a great deal of interesting information respecting the climate, soil, and productions of each part.

The author's name is Thomas ...

