

Faint, illegible handwriting on aged, yellowed paper. The text is arranged in approximately 20 horizontal lines across the page. The left edge of the paper is heavily damaged and ragged, with several small holes or indentations. A small, dark mark is visible on the right side of the page, and a faint stain is present at the bottom center.

