

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. It consists of approximately 25 lines of text, with some lines starting with large, decorative initial letters. The script is dense and characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century. The text is mostly illegible due to the cursive style and fading, but some words like "domine", "regis", "magnae", "nobilitatis", "et", "honoris" can be discerned. The document appears to be a formal record or a letter of some kind.
