

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document fragment. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is partially obscured by a large, rectangular, light-colored stain or watermark in the center. The text is arranged in several lines, starting from the bottom left and moving upwards. The script is dense and characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century.

Handwritten signature or name at the bottom right of the page, written in a cursive script.
