

Handwritten text in a medieval script, possibly a form of Gothic or Carolingian minuscule. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines, with some lines starting with large, decorative initial letters. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the age of the document. The text appears to be a formal or legal document, possibly a charter or a record of a transaction, given the use of certain words and the overall structure. The lines are separated by thin horizontal lines, and there are some larger decorative flourishes at the beginning and end of the text block.
