

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or legal record. The text is written in dark ink on aged, yellowed paper. It consists of approximately 15 lines of text, with some lines being significantly more dense than others. The script is highly stylized and difficult to decipher without specialized knowledge of the language and dialect. The text appears to be a formal document, possibly a contract or a record of a transaction, given the use of terms like 'termino' and 'señalada'. The document is written in a single column, with some lines starting with a large initial letter. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-preserved manuscript.
