

卷之三

muñ ^{oob} m̄ozes

The image shows a detailed black ink drawing on a light background. In the center is a stylized floral or foliate motif with a cross-shaped center. From behind this central element, several branches of flowing, swirling vines extend outwards and downwards. Along the upper right branch, the words "Somnifere" and "d" are written in a fluid, cursive hand. Along the lower right branch, the name "Luis de Góngora" is written in a similar cursive style. The overall effect is one of organic, expressive design.
