

to the King of France

My Lord, I have the honor to receive your letter of the 15th of this month, and am glad to hear that you are well. I am also glad to hear that you have received the news of the death of the King of France.

I am sorry to hear that you are not well, and I hope that you will soon be recovered. I am also sorry to hear that you have received the news of the death of the King of France.

I am glad to hear that you are well, and I hope that you will soon be recovered. I am also glad to hear that you have received the news of the death of the King of France.

I am sorry to hear that you are not well, and I hope that you will soon be recovered. I am also sorry to hear that you have received the news of the death of the King of France.

I am glad to hear that you are well, and I hope that you will soon be recovered. I am also glad to hear that you have received the news of the death of the King of France.

I am sorry to hear that you are not well, and I hope that you will soon be recovered. I am also sorry to hear that you have received the news of the death of the King of France.

