

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written in a dark ink on aged, slightly yellowed paper. The script is dense and fills most of the page, with some lines starting with large, decorative initials. The text appears to be a formal record or a legal document, possibly related to land or property, given the mention of "manors" and "tenements". The handwriting is characteristic of the late 15th or early 16th century.
