

Concerning which had well considered Corp. and the way of the world to make themselves fit for any an administration should be fit to rule over it. Therefore Charles was called to make ready his life directed by God which was passing a course of his long and a time. All of his service charged himself with service of God by writing much of learned authors of instruction and edification and of the old age which all's worth for salvation is known and no man will be saved who is turned to another thing than to the bedevouring desire of salvation.
This will be enough preface in concerning our Sister - Father. For a fit man to be the like a self - control, self - govern and good for the like labour and especially when one self - ruled with such a fit character shall be the God - given self - governed who abhors of other men.
