

The present is a copy of the original manuscript of the first part of the history of the city of London, written by the famous antiquary
 John Stow, in the year 1597. It is written in a very fair hand, and contains many valuable
 particulars of the city and its inhabitants, which are not to be found in any other book. It is now in the possession of the British Museum, and is one of the most valuable of its collection.

The History of the City of London

The first part of the history of the city of London, written
 by the famous antiquary
 John Stow, in the year
 1597. It is written in
 a very fair hand, and
 contains many valuable
 particulars of the city
 and its inhabitants, which
 are not to be found in
 any other book. It is
 now in the possession of
 the British Museum, and
 is one of the most
 valuable of its collection.

The second part of the history of the city of London, written by the same author, in the year 1633. It is written in
 a very fair hand, and
 contains many valuable
 particulars of the city
 and its inhabitants, which
 are not to be found in
 any other book. It is
 now in the possession of
 the British Museum, and
 is one of the most
 valuable of its collection.

