

Handwritten musical notation on a severely damaged, stained, and torn fragment of parchment or paper. The text is written in a medieval script, likely Gothic or similar, and is arranged in several lines. The fragment is heavily stained with dark ink or dirt, particularly along the left and bottom edges, and shows significant physical wear and tear. The notation includes various symbols, including what appears to be a large initial 'D' and several smaller characters, possibly representing letters or musical notes. The fragment is positioned on the left side of a larger, blank page.
