

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or French, covering the majority of the page. The text is dense and appears to be a legal or administrative document, possibly a charter or a record of a court case. It begins with a large initial 'S' and contains numerous lines of text, some of which are indented or written in a different hand. The script is a cursive Gothic style, characteristic of the late 14th or early 15th century. The text is written on a single page of parchment, which shows signs of age and wear, including some staining and a small tear near the bottom left corner.
