The first thing I did was to go to the church and see what was going on. I found the people very sad and the service very solemn.
 I stayed there for some time and then went home.
 I was very tired and I went to bed. I was very happy to see you and to hear from you.
 I hope you are well and happy. I will write to you again soon. I love you very much.
