

Handwritten text in a medieval script, likely Latin or Old English, written in a cursive hand. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines. The script is dense and characteristic of the late Middle Ages. The text appears to be a formal document or a religious text, possibly a charter or a record of a council. The lines are somewhat irregular in length and are written on aged, slightly yellowed parchment. The text is written in a dark ink, and there are some faint markings and corrections visible throughout the document.
