Handwritten signature or name, possibly "Johannes" or similar, written in a highly stylized cursive script. The signature is written over several lines of text.

A large section of the page containing very faint, illegible handwritten text. The ink is light and the script is difficult to decipher. There are some circular scribbles and lines that might be remnants of diagrams or corrections.

Additional faint handwritten text at the bottom of the page, mostly illegible due to fading and bleed-through from the reverse side.
