

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a legal or administrative document. The text is arranged in approximately 25 horizontal lines across the page. It begins with a large initial letter, possibly 'S', followed by several lines of text. The script is dense and somewhat difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the condition of the parchment. There are several large white stains or holes scattered throughout the document, particularly in the upper and middle sections, which obscure some of the text. The overall appearance is that of an old, well-used manuscript.

Handwritten text at the bottom of the page, continuing the cursive script. It appears to be a concluding section or a signature block, though the specific words are difficult to read. It consists of about six lines of text.
