

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a letter or document. The text is dense and difficult to decipher due to the cursive style and some fading. It appears to be a formal or legal document.

Handwritten signatures and names. On the left, there are two names: "Johanna" and "Anna". In the center, there is a name "Elbaruth" with "parisi" written below it. On the right, there is a large, stylized signature that appears to be "Johannes" or similar.

Second block of handwritten text, continuing the document. The script is consistent with the first block. The text is somewhat obscured by a large stain on the left side of the page.

Third block of handwritten text, possibly a concluding section or a separate note. It contains several lines of cursive script, including what might be a date or a reference to a specific event.
