

Handwritten text in a cursive script, likely a historical document or manuscript. The text is written on aged, yellowed paper and is arranged in approximately 15 lines. The script is dense and difficult to decipher due to its cursive nature and the condition of the paper. The text appears to be a list or a series of entries, possibly related to a legal or administrative record.

Handwritten text in a cursive script, continuing the document. This section contains approximately 8 lines of text. The script is consistent with the first section, though some characters are more clearly legible. The text seems to be a continuation of the list or entries from the first section, possibly detailing specific items or transactions.
